Costume Fees....

All of our dance students receive costumes for each of their classes. $100.00 deposit per class for female identifying performers and $75 per class for male identifying performer are due by October 15th 2025. Something Rotten Jr. and Alice in Wonderland Jr.'s costume deposits will be $50 per class. The balance of costume will be charged to your account on March 15, 2026. Costume fees are non-refundable after November 15th 2025 or the date that they are ordered – whichever comes first. Students involved in our year end recitals will receive a "recital t-shirt" as part of their costume for the opening & closing numbers. This is approximately $20.

Competitive students choosing to do solos/duos/trios at the competitions will be responsible for providing and paying for their own costumes.

Competition Fees....

Competitive dancers pay fees to enter each event we attend. Fee information is usually sent home in October. Competitive students will be charged $40 deposits per class on December 1st, 2025.

Remaining competition fee amounts will be charged January 15. If required, families can split remaining fees between January 15, February 15, and March 15. Students in Level 2 to 6 competitive classes will be entered in 3 competitions. Attendance is mandatory.

Choreography Fees for Solos / Duos / Trios

$200 / Solo. $150.00 / dancer for a duo or trio – Includes choreography session, music, cleaning session and support at competitions.

CDTA Exam Fees - These are between $50.00 and $120.00 depending on the level being taken. These are billed to your account once decided if your child will complete an exam. Exams are held in December and/or June.

RAD Exam Fees - Exam information for these classes will be sent home in the fall.

Photos / DVD's – We do a studio photo weekend in the spring. We also have DVD/USBs available for many of our performances/year end recital. The third party organizations we contract to provide these services set the fees for these. Purchasing these items is optional.
