

TINY TOTS 2019

Tiny Tots is a performance based summer camp for preschoolers ages 3 - 6, hosted at SaskExpress! Lessons in different styles of dance are combined with educational activities and play to provide children with an exciting introduction to the performing arts. The camp runs for one week (mornings only), and ends with a mini recital in the SaskExpress Theatre!

Who: Boys and girls ages 3-6

Where: SaskExpress Studio (2272 Pasqua Street)

Price: $200; payment charged on the first day of the program

Registration: Online

For more information, please visit our website (www.saskexpress.com), or contact recreational and performance studio director, Amy Fong (amy@saskexpress.com).

TINY TOTS 2019

Frequently Asked Questions

What styles of dance are taught during Tiny Tots?

Throughout the week, children take mini classes in jazz, tap, musical theatre, hip hop, and ballet. Please see below for a detailed description of each style.

What other activities are offered through the Tiny Tots program?

Dance lessons are interspersed with arts and crafts, outdoor play, snack time, and educational activities, such as reading and science experiments.

When is the Tiny Tots camp?

Tiny Tots is offered twice throughout the summer: July 8 - 12 and August 19-23.

What is the required attire for the camp?

- Girls: Bodysuit and tights or a fitted shirt and leggings*
- Boys: Comfortable pants or shorts with a fitted t-shirt*
- Shoes: Jazz shoes (preferably slip on) or ballet slippers. Tap shoes are an asset, but are not required.*

*Children should also bring a water bottle, outdoor shoes, sunscreen, and mosquito spray to each day of camp.